

Do you have an example of successful partnership working between employers and trade unions?

For more information and to enter the award, scan the QR code or access our web page:

socialpartnershipforum.org/HPMAaward

A decorative graphic in the top left corner consisting of white circles connected by white lines, forming a network or molecular structure.

Partnership working between employers and trade unions in the NHS, to the benefit of staff and patients.

Find out more at:

socialpartnershipforum.org

enquiries@nationalSPF.org

